

ASJ 2022 Spring Annual Meeting (2022/3/2-3/5)

Slack Guide

Ver 3.0 (2022/2/25 update)

Annual Meeting Executive Committee

- Slack is used as a discussion platform for presentations. On the Slack workspace, we have prepared channels for all of the presentations, including a-type , b-type and c-type presentations, and award commemorative talks as well.
- Core-times for real-time discussion of poster presentations with slack will be set on the 1st, 2nd,3rd days of the meeting (15:30-16:30).
- Presenters should join the workspace and the channel of your presentation.
- We have sent information on how to join the slack workspace to registrants.

How to use slack

Please see the following webpages for further general information on Slack.

Channels on Slack

We have prepared the following channels on the workspace.

- #channel of each session : 「#0_session_[session name]」

All the channels for individual presentations are listed at the top of the channel for each session. The channels for each session are set as default channels. On these channels, you can ask questions related to the entire of the session.

- #channel of each presentation : 「#[presentation number]_[name]」

You can ask questions for each presentation.

- #random :

You can chat any topics on this channel.

- #help :

If you have questions or trouble, please comment on this channel.

Profile on Slack

- Edit your profile on the slack workspace as follows.

Note: Profile is independent for each workspace. When you edit your profile in the workspace of the ASJ meeting, your profile of the other workspaces will not be changed.
